Feeling festive? Now is your chance to trick out your house in all kinds of holiday lights and colors and various decorations.

Once you have all the lights up, please join the neighborhood in making sure they shine bright on the Sunday before Christmas from 6—9 p.m.

If you're feeling festive AND ambitious, you could spearhead the effort to bring back our neighborhood-wide luminaries.

Elections Results!

At our recent Annual Meeting, we held the elections for the board and street representatives. Both the current board members and street reps were reelected for 2015.

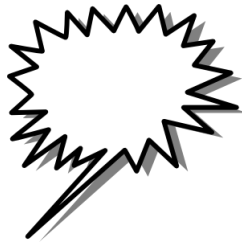

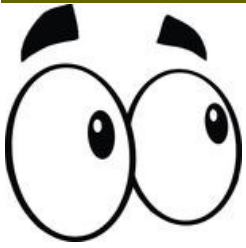

Don't worry if you think you missed your chance to get involved. There are lots of ways to help. Perhaps you would like help your street rep and get to know your neighbors a little better. If you have any questions, just call our fearless leader, Connie Jones.

Trashy Tuesdays...

We have new and improved (?) trash bins provided by the city. Every house gets one bin that is to remain at that address. These replace your personal trash cans and allow for quicker trash collection. Be mindful of the trash bin you were given. If it's lost, stolen, or severely damaged, you are on the hook for a new bin. One idea is to label yours with your house number.

If one bin just isn't enough, additional bins are available (for a small fee, of course) but you own the trash can and can take it with if you move.

See Something, Say
Something, Call 911..

Who's who in College Commons? CCNA Directory Update - 2015

As the new year approaches, Street Representatives will be updating the contact information for each resident for the 2015 Directory. Feel free to contact your street rep directly to update your info.

We will only be printing a limited quantity due to the expense so don't lose track of yours. I keep mine in a safe in the secret room of my non-existent basement.

Crime Alerts

We have had a two incidents reported recently.

- ◆ A break-in occurred on 11/14. The robbery took place sometime during the day. The burglars broke in by literally kicking in the door.
- ◆ On 11/7 between 11:00 p.m. and 1:00 a.m. on Warwick Rd, someone broke into an unlocked car, stole all the change left in the car and ransacked it

Help us keep our neighborhood safe by not ignoring suspicious behavior. Don't forget to lock your cars and homes and don't leave valuables in plain sight.
